

Visual Resource Management Classes Alternative A

- Class 1 To preserve the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape should be low and not attract attention.
 611,985 Acres
 - Class 2 To retain the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape should be low.
 142,137 Acres
- Class 3 To partially retain the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape should be moderate.

 990,593 Acres
- Class 4 To provide for management activities which require major modification of the existing character of the landscape. The level of change to the characteristic landscape can be high.

Map 2-2

S. Debambard of the immand of

Source: BLM Price Field Office